Examination Committee

The Examination Committee of Mahatma Law College ensures smooth and transparent conduct of all examinations. Comprising experienced faculty members, the committee oversees scheduling, question paper preparation, invigilation, and evaluation processes. It ensures adherence to academic guidelines, maintains confidentiality, and resolves student grievances related to assessments. The committee monitors internal and external examinations, coordinates with regulatory bodies, and prepares comprehensive result analysis reports. Additionally, it focuses on upholding academic integrity, implementing technological advancements, and facilitating a fair examination environment. Through its dedicated efforts, the Examination Committee plays a pivotal role in maintaining the institution's high standards of academic excellence.
