Admission Committee

The Admission Committee at Mahatma Law College is dedicated to ensuring a fair, transparent, and efficient admission process. Comprising experienced educators and administrative staff, the committee evaluates applicants based on academic merit, aptitude, and eligibility criteria in alignment with the institution's mission and values. It provides guidance to prospective students and their families, offering support throughout the application process. The committee also ensures compliance with regulatory norms and strives to foster diversity and inclusivity within the student body. With a student-centric approach, the Admission Committee is committed to identifying and nurturing talent, empowering individuals to achieve academic excellence.
