Placement Committee

The Placement Committee at Mahatma Law College is dedicated to bridging the gap between academic excellence and professional opportunities. Comprising experienced faculty and industry experts, the committee aims to guide students in achieving their career aspirations. It organizes skill development workshops, mock interviews, career counseling sessions, and campus recruitment drives to prepare students for the competitive job market. The committee collaborates with leading organizations to ensure maximum placement opportunities for students across diverse sectors. By fostering strong industry-academic partnerships, it empowers students to excel in their chosen fields and contributes to their holistic professional growth.
